2.4 Data Privacy and Security; Business Continuity

2.4.1 Data Privacy. Planview will in addition to its confidentiality obligations under Section 6, collect, use, and process Customer Data solely in accordance with Planview's Privacy Statement found at <https://www.planview.com/trust/privacy/>. If Planview processes any personal data of individuals on Customer's behalf when performing its obligations under this Agreement, then the parties record their intention that Customer is the data controller or data intermediary (as defined under applicable data protection/data privacy laws) and Planview is the data processor and, in any such case, (a) Customer shall ensure that it is entitled to transfer the relevant personal data to Planview so that it may lawfully process the personal data on Customer's behalf, and (b) if applicable, the parties shall comply with the terms of the DPA. Furthermore, it is Customer's responsibility to inform its employees and/or consultants that their data is processed for authentication purposes on Planview Products, and that access logs are kept for security audit purposes.

Planview has implemented and will maintain security procedures and practices appropriate to information technology service providers designed to protect Customer Data from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure, as described at <https://www.planview.com/trust/security/> (the "Security Plans"). Once per calendar year, Planview will obtain an assessment against such Standards by an independent third-party auditor and, on Customer's request, will share a summary of the results. Planview will have no liability for any harm or damage arising out of or in connection with any Beta Feature.

3. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 Professional Services Assistance. Customer shall assist Planview in connection with the setup of the Planview Product as set forth in the applicable Statement of Work.

3.2 Access IDs; Named Users. Customer is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all Access IDs and for all acts that occur with them in connection with Customer's account. Customer must notify Planview promptly after learning of any unauthorized use of Customer's account, breach of security, or loss or theft of Access IDs. Subscription Services fees are based on named Users and therefore Access IDs cannot be shared or used by more than one User, however, they may be reassigned by Customer from time to time to new Users, replacing Users who no longer require access to the Planview Product. Planview may remotely review Customer's use of the Subscription Services, and on Planview's request, Customer will provide reasonable assistance to verify Customer's compliance with the limitations on its rights to access and use the Subscription Services. If Planview determines that Customer has exceeded its permitted access and use rights, Planview will notify Customer and within thirty (30) days thereafter Customer shall either (a) disable any unpermitted use, or (b) purchase subscriptions for the excess Users in minimum increments of twenty-five (25) Users, at Planview's then-current price. The number of Users cannot be decreased during the applicable Subscription Period.

3.3 Use Guidelines and Restrictions. Customer shall use the Planview Product in accordance with the Documentation, this Agreement, and with all applicable laws. Customer shall not: (a) publish, disclose, copy, rent, lease, modify, loan, distribute, sell, resell, transfer, assign, alter, or create derivative works based on the Planview Products or Subscription Services, or any part thereof; (b) reverse engineer, decompile, translate, adapt, or disassemble the Planview Products or Subscription Services, including to: (i) build or create a competitive product or service, and (ii) build or create a product or service using similar ideas, features, functions, or graphics of the Planview Product, nor shall Customer attempt to create the source code from the object code for the Planview Product; (c) permit any third party to access the Planview Product except as expressly permitted herein or under an Order Form or Statement of Work; or (d) create any unauthorized Internet "links" to the Subscription Services or "frame" or "mirror" any content of the Planview Product.

4. FEES AND PAYMENT

4.1 Planview Product and Subscription Services Fees. In consideration of the rights granted in Section 2.2 and/or the Subscription Services, Customer will pay Planview the applicable fees therefor, as stated in each applicable Order Form.

4.2 Professional Services Fees; Expenses. In consideration of the Professional Services, Customer will pay Planview the applicable fees therefor, as stated in each applicable Statement of Work. Unless otherwise set forth in the applicable Statement of Work, Customer will pay Planview for Professional Services on a fixed fee basis. Any estimates regarding fees charged on a time and materials basis for Professional Services are good faith estimates only, based on information known to Planview at the time the estimate is made; such estimates are not fixed fees or fee guarantees. Customer agrees to reimburse Planview for all miscellaneous out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Planview in performing the Professional Services, as well as for reasonable travel expenses, provided such expenses have been pre-approved by Customer. Reimbursement of travel expenses will be in accordance with Planview's travel expense policy, a copy of which will be provided to Customer upon request.

4.3 Invoicing and Payment. Planview will invoice all fees in accordance with the applicable Order Form and Statement of Work. All fees are payable, via wire or ACH (or regional equivalent) in the currency set forth in the applicable document and, if not otherwise specified, all payments are due in full without set off, deduction or withholding of any kind within thirty (30) days from the invoice date. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all fees are non-refundable. Planview does not require Customer to issue a Purchase Order in order for Planview to invoice Customer for applicable fees.

4.4 Procurement Portal Notification. If Customer requires Planview to submit its invoices to a procurement or vendor portal, system, or platform in order for the invoice to be processed for payment by Customer, then Customer must notify the relevant Planview billing contact not more than five (5) business days after execution of a new Order Form or Statement of Work, which notice must include all relevant access requirements and details. The billing contact for all Planview customers based in the United States of America, Canada, and Australia is customerbilling@planview.com, with the contact for all other customers being ar-International@planview.com. If Customer fails to timely provide the foregoing notice with all relevant requirements, then, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Planview, the applicable invoice must be paid by Customer within the timeframe specified in Section 4.3. Planview must still be paid within the timeframe specified herein in order to avoid Planview's remedies for late payment as specified in Section 4.6, below.

4.5 Purchase Order Process. If Customer requires a Purchase Order number to be included on an invoice in order for the invoice to be processed for payment by Customer, then Customer must issue to Planview a Purchase Order and/or Purchase Order number: (i) not more than five (5) business days after execution of a new Order Form or Statement of Work and (ii) not less than sixty (60) days prior to the renewal date of a multi-year Subscription Period under an existing Order Form. If Customer fails to timely issue a Purchase Order or Purchase Order number, then, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Planview, the applicable invoice must be paid by Customer within the timeframe specified in Section 4.3 in order to avoid Planview's remedies for late payment as specified in Section 4.6 below.

4.6 Remedies for Late Payment. Without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, Planview may charge Customer interest at the lesser of one and one-half percent (1.5%) or the maximum legally permitted rate, if any, on any outstanding balance due from Customer, from the date such payment was first past due until the date paid. In addition, if Customer's account is thirty (30) days or more past due, Planview reserves the right to suspend the Subscription Services and related Professional Services, until such amounts are paid in full. The foregoing remedies will not apply to the extent a payment is the subject of a good faith dispute between the parties, provided that Customer has notified Planview of such dispute and is working in good faith with Planview to expeditiously resolve the dispute.

4.7 Taxes. Unless otherwise stated, Planview's fees do not include any local, state, provincial, federal, or foreign taxes, levies, or duties of any nature (including VAT, value-added, or good and services). Customer is responsible for such amounts in addition to the fees, excluding taxes based on Planview's net income.

5. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

5.1 Planview's Rights. As between the parties, Planview either owns all right, title, and interest, or has the right to use, license, and/or sublicense all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to (a) the Planview Products (and all Improvements, and Error Corrections), the Subscription Services, the Documentation, and the Project Materials, (b) the PLANVIEW trademark and any other trademarks used with the Planview Products or services provided by Planview hereunder, (c) the Planview Data, and (d) all other Planview-supplied material developed for use in connection with the Planview Product or Subscription Services generally, exclusive of Customer Data. For the avoidance of doubt, Project Materials are provided to Customer solely for use with the Planview Product and for no other purpose. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to limit Planview's right to perform similar Professional Services for any other party or to assign any employees or subcontractors to perform similar Professional Services for any other party or to use any information incidentally retained in the unaided memories of its employees providing Professional Services. Any rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by Planview. Except for the access and use rights expressly set forth in this Agreement, no other rights in or to Planview's intellectual property are granted to Customer. In no event shall any Planview Product be deemed to have been sold to Customer, even if, for convenience, Planview uses words such as "sale" or "purchase" in Order Forms or other documents or communications.

5.2 Customer Data. As between the parties, Customer owns all right, title, and interest, including all Intellectual Property Rights, in and to the Customer Data. Customer hereby grants to Planview a royalty-free, fully-paid, non-exclusive, non-transferrable (except as set forth in Section 11.7 (Assignment) and/or as provided for in the DPA), and worldwide right to access, host, use, copy, process, export, and display Customer Data, (a) as reasonably necessary for Planview to (i) provide, maintain, and update the Planview Products in accordance with this Agreement, and (ii) prevent or address service, security, support or technical issues; (b) for the purposes as expressly permitted in writing by Customer, and (c) as required by law. Planview is not responsible for reviewing and/or validating the Customer Data for accuracy, correctness, compliance with applicable law, or usability.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

6.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party ("Discloser") to the other party ("Recipient"), in any form, that (a) Discloser identifies at the time of disclosure as confidential or proprietary or (b) should otherwise reasonably be understood by Recipient to be confidential or proprietary given the nature of the information, its legends and markings, or the circumstances of disclosure. Confidential Information may also include third-party confidential or proprietary information disclosed to Recipient. Recipient's obligations under this Section 6 will not apply to any Confidential Information that Recipient can document: (i) was or becomes in the public domain through no fault of Recipient; (ii) was rightfully known by Recipient, free of any restriction on use or disclosure, prior to receiving the information from Discloser; (iii) is rightfully acquired by Recipient from a third party who has the right to disclose it and provides it free of restriction on use or disclosure; or (iv) was independently developed by Recipient without reference to any Confidential Information.

6.2 Recipient's Obligations. Recipient will treat all Confidential Information with the same degree of care as Recipient accords to Recipient's own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care. Recipient will not use, copy, disseminate, or disclose any Confidential Information except to the extent necessary for the purpose of providing and/or receiving the Subscription Services, Professional Services, and/or Documentation under this Agreement or to enforce its terms (collectively, the "Purpose"). Recipient will disclose Confidential Information only to those of its employees, agents, officers, directors, and advisors who need to know such information for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective than those required under this Section 6 (each, a "Representative"). Recipient will be responsible for any Representative's failure to comply with the terms of this Section 6. Disclosure to anyone other than a Representative will require Discloser's prior written consent. Recipient will give prompt notice to Discloser of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information of which it becomes aware and will assist Discloser in remedying any such unauthorized use or disclosure. Recipient may not reverse engineer, disassemble, or decompile any prototypes, software, or other tangible objects that embody Confidential Information and that are provided to Recipient under this Agreement.

6.3 Compelled Disclosure. A disclosure by Recipient of any Confidential Information that is (a) legally compelled by a court of competent jurisdiction or required by a regulatory or governmental body to be disclosed, or (b) necessary to enforce this Agreement, will not be considered a breach of this Agreement; provided, however, that Recipient will, if legally permitted, provide Discloser (i) prompt notice thereof prior to the compelled disclosure so that Discloser may seek an appropriate protective order or other remedy, and (ii) reasonable assistance in obtaining any such order or remedy. If Recipient is nonetheless legally compelled or otherwise required to disclose, then it will disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required and will make reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Confidential Information so disclosed.

6.4 Return or Destruction of Confidential Information. All documents, materials, and other tangible or intangible objects furnished to Recipient by Discloser (whether or not they contain or disclose Discloser's Confidential Information) are the property of Discloser and all summaries, copies, and excerpts thereof made by Recipient or otherwise in Recipient's possession are and will remain the property of Discloser. After any request by Discloser, Recipient will promptly return or destroy all such documents, materials, and objects, as well as all such summaries, copies, and excerpts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Recipient may retain a copy of Confidential Information to the extent required for reasonable internal risk, insurance, or audit purposes, as well as any electronic copies made as part of Recipient's standard backup and archival practices, provided that any such Confidential Information retained shall remain subject to the terms and obligations set forth in this Agreement.

6.5 Injunctive Relief. Each party agrees that its obligations under this Section 6 are necessary and reasonable in order to protect Discloser and its business, and expressly agree that monetary damages may be inadequate to compensate Discloser in the event of a breach of this Section. Accordingly, each party acknowledges that any such breach or threatened breach may cause irreparable and continuing injury to Discloser and that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available in law, at equity, or otherwise, Discloser will be entitled to seek injunctive relief without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting a bond to obtain a preliminary injunction. However, the foregoing will not relieve a party of its obligation to demonstrate harm to obtain a permanent injunction.

7. WARRANTIES, REMEDIES, AND DISCLAIMER

7.1 Warranties. Planview warrants that (a) it will provide the Planview Product in a manner that materially conforms with the Documentation and (b) it will perform the Professional Services in a competent and workmanlike manner that materially conforms to the Statement of Work requirements.

7.2 Exclusions. Planview will have no obligation or liability of any kind for a breach of Section 7.1(a) to the extent a warranty claim arises from Customer's access to or use of the Planview Product (a) not expressly authorized under this Agreement, (b) in violation of applicable law, (c) as modified by anyone other than Planview or its contractors, or (d) in combination with any non-Planview-provided hardware, software, or data with which it was not initially set up by Planview or subsequently expressly approved by Planview ("Excluded Combinations"), in each case if breach of warranty would not have occurred but for such access or use. If Planview provides services in response to a warranty claim and determines that the claim was caused by any of the foregoing exclusions, then Planview may impose charges at its then-standard time and materials rates, including travel and out-of-pocket expenses.

7.3 Remedies. If the Planview Product fails to perform as warranted, then Customer must report the relevant Error to Planview within thirty (30) days after becoming aware of it by submitting a Support Services ticket, and, if Planview is able to recreate the Error, it will correct or provide a permanent workaround at no additional charge. If Planview fails to provide the Professional Services as warranted, then Customer must report such failure to Planview within five (5) days after the performance thereof, and Planview will re-perform such Professional Services at no additional charge. The provisions of the Section constitute Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, and Planview's sole and exclusive liability, for breach of the warranty set forth above.

7.4 Disclaimer. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, PLANVIEW MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE, AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, ACCURACY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. PLANVIEW DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE PLANVIEW PRODUCT WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, ACCURATE, OR ERROR-FREE OR THAT IT WILL BE SUITABLE FOR OR MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF CUSTOMER.

8. MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Indemnification by Planview

8.1.1 Subject to Section 8.3, Planview will (a) defend Customer from any third-party claims, demands, suits, or proceedings (“Claims”) made or brought against Customer to the extent alleging that the use of the Planview Product infringes a registered patent or copyright of a third party or misappropriates a trade secret, and (b) pay, with respect to any such Claim, all court-ordered awards of damages or amounts agreed to in settlement by Planview.

8.1.2 Should the Planview Product become, or in Planview’s opinion be likely to become, the subject of a Claim for which indemnity is provided under Section 8.1.1, Planview will, at its option and expense, either (a) obtain for Customer the right to continue to use the Planview Product or (b) replace or modify the Planview Product so that it becomes non-infringing while providing substantially similar features and functions. If Planview, in its sole discretion, determines that neither of these alternatives is commercially reasonably available, then Planview will terminate Customer’s access to and use of the Planview Product and reimburse Customer for any prepaid, unused Subscription Service fees therefor, for the remainder of the then-current Subscription Period.

8.1.3 Planview will have no obligation or liability for any Claim under Section 8.1.1 to the extent arising from (a) Customer’s access to or use of the Planview Product (i) not expressly authorized under this Agreement, (ii) in violation of applicable law, (iii) after termination under Section 8.1.2, (iii) as modified by anyone other than Planview or its subcontractors, or (iv) Excluded Combinations, in each case if the Claim would not have occurred but for such access or use; or (b) Customer Data.

8.2 Indemnification by Customer. Customer will (a) defend Planview from any Claims made or brought against Planview alleging that the Customer Data (or Planview’s use of it in accordance with this Agreement) or Customer’s access to or use of the Planview Product in a manner falling under one of the exceptions set forth in Section 8.1.3 infringes or misappropriates the Intellectual Property Rights of, or has otherwise harmed, a third party and (b) pay, with respect to any such Claim, all court-ordered awards of damages or amounts agreed to in settlement by Customer.

8.3 Indemnification Process. The obligations of the parties under this Section are conditioned on the indemnified party (a) notifying the indemnifying party promptly of any actual or threatened Claim (provided, that the failure to provide prompt notice will not limit the indemnifying party’s obligations under this Section unless and to the extent it was materially prejudiced thereby), (b) giving the indemnifying party sole control of the defense of such Claim and of any related settlement negotiations, and (c) cooperating with and, at the indemnifying party’s reasonable request and expense, assisting in, the defense and settlement of the Claim. The indemnifying party will not settle a Claim in a manner that requires the indemnified party to admit fault or liability or admits same on the other party’s behalf, without its prior consent. This Section 8.3 states each party’s entire liability and the other party’s exclusive remedy for any Claims.

9. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

9.1 Cap on Direct Damages. SUBJECT TO SECTION 9.3, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY’S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR UNDER ANY OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY, EXCEED THE AMOUNTS ACTUALLY PAID BY CUSTOMER HEREUNDER FOR THE SERVICE GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM DURING THE TWELVE (12) MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE FIRST EVENT GIVING RISE TO LIABILITY.

9.2 Exclusion of Consequential and Related Damages. SUBJECT TO SECTION 9.3, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO RECORDS OR DATA, ANY LOST PROFITS, LOSS OF USE, COSTS OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE GOODS OR SERVICES (INCLUDING COSTS OF COVER), OR FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE OR LOSS HOWEVER CAUSED AND IRRESPECTIVE OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER OR NOT THE PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE OR LOSS.

9.3 Excluded Claims, Cumulative Remedies. The limitations and exclusions of liability shall not apply to (a) payments arising from a party’s obligations under Section 8 (Indemnification), or (b) loss or damage arising from (i) infringement or misappropriation by a party of the other party’s Intellectual Property Rights, or (ii) willful misconduct, or fraud or that cannot legally be limited by contract. Damages arising from a party's breach of its obligations under Section 6 (Confidentiality) are excluded from Section 9.2 but are subject to Section 9.1. Other than as expressly stated in this Agreement, the remedies provided herein are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other remedies available to a party at law or in equity.

Planview agrees to maintain insurance coverage in the categories and within the policy limits set forth below and maintain certificate(s) evidencing all such coverages, which will be made available upon request to Planview. All insurance coverage shall be on an occurrence basis. The only exception is if the claims-made coverage provides a three (3)-year period of "tail coverage" on any expiring/canceled claims-made insurance policy. Upon request by Customer made within thirty (30) days after the effective date of expiration or termination of this Agreement, Planview will work with Customer to arrange for retrieval of Customer Data; depending on factors such as quantity of data, multi- or single-tenant hosting, and format of data file, Planview reserves the right to charge Customer a reasonable fee for retrieval. Customer may, upon request, extend the retrieval period to a total of ninety (90) days, provided such request is made within thirty (30) days after expiration or termination. After the retrieval period, Planview will have no obligation to maintain or provide any Customer Data and will, unless legally prohibited, delete all Customer Data in its systems or otherwise in its possession or under its control.

Order Forms, Statements of Work, and/or amendments related hereto may be executed electronically and in counterparts, which each individually and taken together shall form one binding legal instrument.
